BRITONS CELEBRATE ST. GEORGE'S DAY

Englishmen of St. Louis and Guests Enjoy Banquet at St. Nicholas.

BRITISH SOLDIERS ATTEND.

Weterans of Boer War in Fatigue Uniforms Lend Touch of the Picturesque to the Scene.

St Louis Englishmen and many guests from abroad, including the Boer war veterans, who will take part in the Boer war exhibit at the World Fair, celebrated Bt. George's Day at a banquet at the St. Micholas Hotel last night, given under the auspices of Nelson and Wellington Lodges, Order Sons of St. George. The banquet was the second annual celebration of St. George's Day, and was more notable than the banquet last year, on account of the presence of a greater number of guests. Covers were laid for

Among the guests were many St. Louis women, and in respect to their presence the banquet was made almost "dry," only two or three courses being served with rges Them With Being Instru ental in Securing Indictment and Arrest.

BROOKS SAYS BURTON'S FRIENDS ARE TO BLAME.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Los Angeles, Cal., April 25.-Charles H. rooks of St. Louis, who is under arres ere, charged with defrauding persons in uri, claims that the friends of United States Senator Burton of Kansas are rede for his indictment for fraudulent se of the mails.

He will have a hearing before a United tales commission here Tuesday. He will put under bonds to appear in St. Louis trial in the Federal Circuit Court. Brooks was arrested in December, 1902, at St. Louis on complaint charging him with using malls to defruad. He was released on $1,000 bond to appear for trial, but, leaving the State, he did not return, and bell was forfeited.

The arrest of Charles H. Brooks, former president of the Brooks Brokerage Commy, a pioneer in the get-rich-quick con-rms of St. Louis, at Los Angeles, Cal., cerns of St. Louis, at Los Angeles, Cal., on Friday was not a surprise to the United States officials here, as they had notification that Brooks had been identified in Los Angeles several days ago.

Brooks is under indictment for postal frauds in connection with his scheme here, and jumped his bail of $1,00 shortly after his arrest a year ago. That bail was forfeited, and Brooks is now also charged with being a fugitive from justice. He is said to have purchased a hot in Los Angeles since his arrival there.

The Federal suthorities here expect no formal notification until the Government authorities in California bring him to St. Lettis.

PREFERRED REAL TO MOCK WEDDING

1 Bet Led to Marriage of Roscoe J. Carson and Mrs. Lizzie Vogt in East St. Louis.

After having planned for a mock mar riage, Roscoe J. Carson, a railroad clerk, and Mrs. Lizzie Vogt, formerly Miss Jackson, decided on a real ceremony, and Justice of the Peace John J. Driscoll, who assisted them to secure the marriage license, officiated yesterday.

The couple will live for the present at holds.

Carson applied in East St. Louis for marriage license. Clerk Caughlin refused him because of his youthful appearance. Carson then went to Justice Driscoll, an Carson said that he had made a bet that he would get a marriage license and have a caramony performed before evening, and that he would like to win the bet. He asked Judge Driscoll to secure his father's consent to the issuance of the license. Judge Driscoll secured this consent over the telephone, and then called up Mr. Caughlin, who agreed to issue the license. An hour later Carson and Mrs. Vogt appeared before Judge Driscoll.

"We have decided to make this marriage real instead of a mock affair," declared Carson, and Mrs. Vogt smilingly agreed. "I don't think that there will be any difficulty in collecting this bet now, do you?" queried Carson of the Judge.

Sues for Reward for Finding Body. Suit to decide who is entitled to the $300 eward effered by Mrs. G. H. Kemper for finding her son, John H. Kemper, whos has been started before Justice of the Peace Driscoll of East St. Louis. The case is set for next Saturday. O. E. Meyer has started the suit against J. Niehaus, who has put in a claim for the money. Mrs. Kemper stated vesterday that she was ready and willing to pay the reward of $200 to the person who could prove his right to it.

A verdict of $104 damages was rendered by Justice of the Peace Driscoll yesterday aganist the Wiggins Ferry Company in favor of Charles Stone, a houseboat dweller of the East Bide, who claimed that the Wiggins Ferry Company, through one of its tugs, had pulled his houseboat off the sandbar and had caused the bottom to give way. The Wiggins Ferry Company secured a writ of ouster in Belleville about six months ago against several houseboat dwellers on their property known as Sandy Hook.

UNION TALK CAUSES SHOOTING

Jacob Youngblood Seriously Wounded by James Robertson. Jacob Youngblood, 35 years old, a phoographer residing at No. 312 Rutger treet, was shot yesterday by James Robertson, a fireman, residing at No. 509

ertson, a fireman, residing at No. 509
South Second street.
Youngblood is at the City Hospital, suffering from a wound in the right breast, and his condition is serious. Robertson was arrested.
The shooting, which took place in the saloon of Edward Gurger, No. 1300 South Third street, is said to have been the result of a qua-rel between the two men while they were discussing the firemen's strike at the Laciede Gas Works, at Second and Rutger streets.
Robertson works for the Laciede Gas Company, and, it is said, is not a union man. Youngblood, it is said, called him a "scab" and struck him in the face, after which Robertson drew his revolver and fired one shot.
